My fellow classmates, my name is Gary Fisher and I'm here today because I'm running to be your class representative.

What is the situation today my friends ? We are tired, we are stressed out, we are fed up ! Why ? Because of this system ! We have too many classes, too many subjects and too much homework ! The teachers tell us that we are stupid and lazy, but we're not !

If you vote for me, I promise you that, together, we can imagine a better future. Lots of things are going to change.

If you vote for me, there will be no more homework and fewer classes.

Every pupil will be allowed to choose their subjects.

Bad marks will be forbidden.

The break times will be longer, and we will be able to use our mobiles whenever and wherever we want.

As to the canteen, there will be fewer vegetables and more fries !

I'm telling you my friends, if you vote for me, together, we can make school fun again.

Thank you for listening ! I'm Gary Fisher !

WILL : le futur simple
(forme affirmative)

Observe :

I will represent you. Je vous représenterai.

I will defend your rights. Je défendrai vos droits.

I 'll take my responsibilities. Je prendrai mes responsabilités.

La règle :

Pour fabriquer le futur simple anglais, on utilise l'auxiliaire modal "will" placé avant le verbe. A l'oral en particulier, "will" peut se contracter en "'ll".

Cas particulier

Je pourrai : I will ~~can~~ -> I will be able to (= je serai capable de)

A toi :

Je viendrai -> I

Je serai -> I

Tu réussiras -> You

Il y aura -> There

Nous voterons -> We

Good morning... My fellow students : I stand here before you because I want to be your class representative this year. I realise that it's a privilege and an honour.

I promise to work hard to be the effective leader that you deserve.

I will assist teachers and students in any way possible to the best of my abilities.

I will always try to be respectful, responsible, honest, trustworthy and reliable. I will always try to treat everyone equally and aim to live in harmony with one another.

I will always take my responsibilities very seriously and always with a smile.

Also, I will listen to you and I would be very willing to take ideas from you guys.

The other reason I would be a good representative is that I'm not afraid to voice my opinions or stand up for what I believe in.

I know this job demands time, effort, enthusiasm and empathy. I believe I possess all these qualities. I promise to dedicate myself to serving the school and especially you, my class. So please vote for me, trust in me and I promise I won't let you down.

Thank you for listening to my speech and don't forget my name : it's Alan Dougall.

Hi. I'm here today, running to be your representative, because I have strong ambitions for this class, unlike the other candidates here. They're telling you that they will make things better, but they won't ! They are frauds !

Are you going to listen to their lies ? No way !

In this class, I see many good hard-working students, who do their best to achieve. But it's difficult, very difficult. Why ? Because some pupils here simply don't belong ! They don't want to work, they don't want to learn !

Look at them : they are always chatting, playing, disturbing us !

They don't like school ? Fine ! Let them stay at home ! We don't need them !

I say : if you vote for me, we will keep this class peaceful and successful.

We won't tolerate bad behaviour and bad results : the pupils who chat, who are lazy and who don't want to work will be fired from the school !

Because WE want to achieve ! This our class : let's protect it.

Vote for success, vote for ambition, vote Veronica !

BE going to : le futur proche

Observe :

I am going to change things ! Je vais changer les choses !

We are going to win ! Nous allons gagner !

Are you going to vote for me ? Allez-vous voter pour moi ?

La règle :

Comme en français, on peut utiliser le verbe "aller" (GO) pour parler d'un événement prévu dans un futur proche. En anglais, le verbe GO est alors à la forme BE + ing, suivi de la préposition "to".

NB : à l'oral, on peut contracter "going to" en "gonna".

A toi :

Je vais parler :

I

Tu ne vas pas être déçu :

You disappointed

Vous allez adorer :

You

Vont-ils comprendre ? :

..... they ?
